CHEERING FOR OUAY.

The Result of Philadelphia's Republican Primary Elections.

THE SENATOR'S VICTORY ASSURED

In His Contest for the Chairmanship of mittee--- Righteen Sure Delegates from Philadelphia, and Two Confests on Hand.

PHILADELPHIA Ang. 21.—The Republican primaries to select seventy delegates to the state convention, and also to choose candidates for various city offices, were held last night. The indications are that the Quay faction elected eighteen delegates sure, and possibly twenty-two, with one or two districts still in doubt. The anti-Quay people concede the senator six-

The polls were open from 6 to 8 p. m., and the seenes around the various polling places in districts in which there were umrests recalled an exciting presidential election. Never before in the history of the Republican party in this city has there been such an exciting fight in the primaries. In many wards very near the Tall Republican vote was polied.

prise to Senator Quay bimself, who did not expect to overcome the influence that would be brought to bear against him in certain districts. The thirty-seven wards of the city are grouped into twenty-eight legislative districts and these elected from one to seven delegates each. The hottest fights were to the l'ifteenth ward, in which Mayor Warwick resides, and the West Philadelphia wards, the Twentyfourth and the Thirty-fourth. In the former the mayor was badly beaten, the Quay forces, headed by Alexander Crow. Ar, carrying twenty-seventy out of tortythree divisions, with contests in two. In West Philadelphia State Senator Thomas, the Quay man, won his fight handsomely, notwithstanding the fact that David Martin, the anti-Quay leader in this city, took personal charge of the fight during the past week. The e two districts elected seven Quay delegates. The Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, Thirteenth, Twenty-Seventh and Thirtieth wards also elected eleven Quay delegates, making a sure total of eighteen. In the Fifth ward, the anti-Quay leaders changed the polling place in a majority of the divisions, and the result was that double primaries were held. Both sides claim the one delegate from this ward, but the anti-Quay man was given the credentials, and his opponent filed notice of contest. The result in the Ulrit ward, where four delegates are to be elected, is in doubt. The Quay people claim to have carried twenty-seven out of fifty-two divisions. with seven in doubt. If this version of the result is verified Quay will have twenty two delegates from this city. The Quayites also claim that the Twenty-sec ond, Twenty-third and Tourty-fifth wards, electing five delegates, are in doubt. Last night's contest practically closes the fight in the state. Lehigh being the only remaining county to elect delegates. It appears almost cortain that Senator Quay has wen his fight for the state chairmanship, with some votes to spare. A conservative estimate give: him 16) votes in the convention. I teen more than the number necessary to elect. The senator last night occupied his suite of rooms in the Mecropole hotel, and a constant stream of visit its passed in and | been seen. Their best was can iff orting out, congrataly ing him upon his victory. He declined to be interviewed, saying that with money he would not speak for publication until after the convention, which meets at Harrisburg on Aug. 25. He was clated at the result of last night's primaries, and replied good n cure fly to the compliments that wife showered upon him. The contest attracted to the city politicians of all degrees from all over the state. These growded the head quarters of the two factions and caparly watched the returns.

Senator Penrose, who, more than any one else, prompital of the fight, carried his ward, the eligibth, by a vote of thirteen to three, and will go to the convention as a delegate.

John Russell Young ran as a Quay delegate in the Ninth word. This ward is presided over by Sacciff Clement, who did not permit Mr. Young to carry a single division. ... ---

It was stated at the Q my head planters today that two of the four delegates from Northampton county and one from Clearfield county have deserted the anti-Quay candidate for state chairman, B. F. Gilke-

The following candidates for city offices were chosen at today's conventions: For district attorney, George S. Graham; coroner, Samuel H. Ashbridge, city controller, John M. Walton; clerk of quarter sessions, William B. Ahern; recorder of deeds. William M. Geary. All of the candidates are present incumbents except Mr. Geary.

No Bull Fight at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Aug. 21. - The bull fight which has been so extensively advertised to take place in connection with the Cotton States and International exposition will not come off. The proposed exhibition has never had any connection with the exhibition itself, being merely a side show intended to be presented in the Midway. The directors of the exposition have discovered, however, that the proposed fight has become confounded in the public mind with the exposition proper, and for this reason decided to withdraw from the concessionaries of the Mexican village the right to present the proposed fight.

SUITS AGAINST JUDGES.

Many Legal Contests Growing Out of a

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 21.-A profound sensation was caused in court circles and through the city yesterday by the filing of a suit by Attorney Cornelius Smith against President Judge R. W. Archbald, Superior Cour. Judge E. N. Willard and his partner and son in law, Major Everett Warren, ex-Congressman Lemuel Amett Warren, ex-Congressman Lemuel Ammerman, ex-City Solicitor I. H. Burns, Prothonocary C. E. Pryor, Deputy Prothonocary Myron Kasson, ex-County Detective Thomas F. Reynolds, and the Lehigh Valley Railroad company.

The action is brought by Mr. Smith as counsel for John G. Jennings, and the damages asked are $100,000. The case grows out of the well known Jennings.

grows out of the well known Jennings suit. The plaintiff's minor son, James Jenniars, was injured in the Mud Run disaster, on the Lehigh Valley, on Oct. 10, 1888, and brought suit for $50,000 damages. At the same time his father brought an action to recover damages for the loss of his son's services. The elder Jennings is now under bail on a charge of perjury, based upon allegations made against of-ficials of the court in an affidavit filed when his case was called for trial last Attorney Smith then went to the supreme court for a mandamus to compel the lower court to discharge his client on common ball, and in doing so he made charges which induced ex-City Solicitor Burns to sue for $5,1000 damages for libel a few weeks ago. In vesterday's suit Mr. Smith avers that the defendents conspired to hinder, delay and defeat his actions, although his elient was entitled to recover damages.

In an instant Seliman sent abuilet crashing through Hardin's brain. Sellman surrendered.

The St. Louis a Complete Success.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 21 -The speed trials of the American line steamer St. Louis over a measured course in the English channel were a complete success. The course was from Portland Bill to Start Point and back, which is a distance of 104 knots. The time in which the course was covered was thrs. It mins, I see, which gives a mean speed of 22 3-10 knots. The trial was made to ascertain whether the steamship comes up to the requirement under the contract for carrying the

Three Riotous Strikers Killed.

BERLIN, Aug. 21.-Twelve strikers from Skalweit's mills in Lablau, east Prussia. became engaged in an alterestion with the owners in the mill yard, and finally attacked them. The police were summoned, but the rioters turned upon them and attempted to drive them away. A sharp encounter ensued, during which a policeman fired five shots from his revolver, with the result that three of the strikers were killed.

French and Italian Workmen Fight.

PARIS, Aug. 21.-A dispatch to Lo Journal from Marseilles reports that a serious riot has occurred between French and Italian workmen employed in the salt works at Berre, sixteen miles northwest of Marseilles. The fighting was of a most desperate character, and five men were seriously wounded before the police could quell the riot. A number of the ringleaders were arrested.

DEFENDER AND VIGILANT

An Unsatisfactory Contest Between the Two Yachts.

VIGILANT AWARDED THE RACE

But the Defender Met with an Accident Which Compelled Her to Withdraw at the End of the First Round, When She Was Five Minutes Ahead.

New York, Aug. 21.-The first formal trial race between the Defender and the Vigilant to give the America's cup committee an opportunity to decide which boat should be named to defend the cup was held yesterday outside of Sandy Hook in the same waters that the cup race will take place in, but ended very unsatisfactorily. The boats raced not only to give the committee a line on them, but also for a cup that John Jacob Astor offered to the winner of the majority of the races that the committee should order.

The winner of the cup, however, will not necessarily be the defender of the Ameri ca's cup. One boat might beat the other three times straight, and yet the America's cup committee will have absolute power and discretion in picking the defender. The committee might decide from their observations during the cruise of the New York Yacht club to the eastward and ignore these trial races altogether li they so choose to do.

It is believe I among yachtmen that the committee ordered these trial races more in the hope that they would see Defender in a good stiff breeze, if not a hard wind, a condition of things in which she has not yet had the opportunity of displaying her power. They came very near having the desired view restorday, but they were forestalled by an ac ident that prevented Defender from ready showing what she could do in a breeze of wind that went over the water probably at the rate of twenty knots an hour. In fact it was the very stiffness of the breeze that brought dire injury to the fin Eccled boat. The breeze stirred up her rigging so much and played such havoc among it that it loosened it to a material extent up toward the masthead and caused such damage that Defender had to withdraw or take a liberal chance at carrying away her topmast. It was afterward found that the slacking up of the rigging was so extensive that the yacht would not be able to compete in the second trial race for a week. The committee having learned this fact decided at the New York Yacht club house last night that the next two trial races would take piece on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

The Vigilant, too, was prevented from going over the whole course, but from a different cause. After she had made her first round of the ten miles to windward and return she hauled down her club topsail, and then ran up against a wind that burst her jib into shreds. Nothing daunted, she ran up another jib, and was proceeding on the course the second time when the committee boat Luckenbach ran up along-ide of her while she was tacking, and notified her that she need go no further. that she, Viz lant, had been decided the winner of the day's race.

The time of the boats in the incomplete race was as follows:

Outer Elopsed
Start, M. rb. Finish, Time.
H. M. 7 H. M. 8, H. M. 8, H. M. 8,
Defender (1734) 7 H. 0.18 2.04729 2:17:96
Virilant, 1145 9 1.14 54 2:08:32 2:22:33 Thus it will be seen that the Defender beat the Vigilant on the clapsed time of the only round by five minutes.

Pal, emploded herwich fand 5 o'clock in the morning, instantly killing six men and badly barning eight others, not one of those employed about the furnace esraping. Of the injured two died on the way to the hospital.

The dead are: Michael Kapinos, aged 26. married; Andrew Brobnak, aged 35, married: John Prohopsvic, aged 45, leaves a widow and three children; Stefan Havrila, aged 32, single; John Mika, aged 20, married; John Greugow, aged 27, mar-ried; Joseph Csop, aged 31, single.

Of the injured it is now thought that three will die. Their names are: John Warha, inhaled the ilemes, married, two children; John Skonda, married; Mike Jura, married, Tasse men are frightfully burned. The victims of the accident were all foreigners, mostly Poles and Hungarians.

A large barrow loaded with raw iron ore had fallen through the huge bell on the top of the furnace stack. Fourteen men were sugaged in an effort to remove the barrow from the bell, so that it could be closed. While thus engaged the explosion occurred, and not one of the men escaped either death or injury. Work in every department of the huge plant was temporarily aban I med, and all efforts exerted to the resens of the horribly mangied victims, who had been hurled in all directions by the terrine upheaval, which closely resembled a volumble emption of gigantic proportions.

SEVEN MEN WERE DROWNED By the Up-eiting of a Small Pleasure

Yacht Near Buffalo. Buffalo, Aug. Cl.-By the causizing of the small pion-use yacht Rung Brothers last evening seven men of the thirteen on

MANY MILES OF FLAMES.

Alarming Progress of Forest Fires in New Jarsey.

GREAT DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY

It Is Estimated That the Various Confiagrations Will Cause Damage Amounting to Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars. The Supposed Work of Incendiaries.

CAPE-MAY, Aug. 21.-A forest fire covering 200 acres of valuable timber is burning between Cape May Court House and Goshen. The residence and barn of George Borton were destroyed by the fire. A high wind fauned the flames all day, and the few farmers who are attempting to check the progress of the fire have had little Reports from other places in South Jersey show that there are many miles of flame sweeping onward. A terrible forest fire has been raging in New Jersey since Monday morning between Accound Tauzton. How the fire broke out is not known, but it started close to Andersonville, and has burned out thousands of acres of valnable timber, cranberry bogs and the Jackson meadows between that place and Oak Knoil. Crowds of men from Medford and the hamlets in the vicinity of the flames have been fighting the fire for hours. The reports from the scene are meager, owing to its distance from relegraphic stations, but it is said the West Jersey cranberry hogs are burned. The fire spread to the extent of three miles, burning everything before it-houses, barns and outbuildings and the crapherty bogs of Henry Thorn, Dr. Richard Brad-dork and Jupher Bowker.

There is the greatest feeling among the people in the vicinity of the fire. Huckleberries grow in abundance on burned ground, and some of the cabin dwellers. who make their living by picking berries. it is said, occasionally set fire to bush lands regar liess of consequences, and it is believed this fire is of incondiary origin, and the citizens have appointed a committee to in jules into the cause.

He said the fire had inc-regionally started near his home at Ander-onville, and that the cabins of several charcoal burners were destroyed, and that a number of cranberry bogs had been burned over, entailing a loss of many thousands of dollars. The fire now threatens Oak Knoll, Crow's Foot and other hamlers, and everybody is out fighting flames and trying to stop

A big forest fire is raging about fifteen miles from Cape May. The corn crop is in great danger, and will be destroyed unless rain puss out the fire.

Considerable valuable lumber in the woods at May's Landing is being burned by a forest fire. A big crowd of men and boys are fighting the flames to prevent the fire from spreading to May's Landing proper, where the residences are located. The forest fire in the vicinity of Abse-com is still burning. Many of the men who were called out of church on Sunday to fight the flumes are still doing so, but the flames continue to spread.

The forest fires which started near Tom's River on Sunday, and to which but little attention was paid, are spreading and now threaten serious loss. Monday night a strong northwest wind sprang up and the flames were driven towards the farms along the Manchester pike and threatened for hours to reach the farm buildings. The farmers, aided by volunteers, fought the fire all night. Three hundred men worked throughout the night in relays. Valuable timber was burned, but the efforts of the fighters were entirely directed toward saving the crops and buildings. Yesterday the wind shifted, and the flames were driven toward the Lakewood road, but not toward the village. If the wind holds it will carry the flames into the extensive cranberry bogs, which are dry and will burn.

The fires near Egg Harbor City are still hurning fiercely and have more headway than at any time before, despite the fact that hundreds are fighting the flames. The flam's are now headed directly toward. McKee City, and there are many houses. in the path. A drenching rain is about all that will say eight or ten buildings which are in the way. Embankments are being thrown up in places to stay the clapping her hands. "How nice! And will we play with it?

It is estimated that the various forest fires will do damage amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars.

"Play with it!" mimicked Mr. Wigglesworth; "wha'd ye think we'd do; hang it on the parler wall? Might wear it to the governor's reception, I s'pose. Or mebbe the hired girl would like to stuff a turkey with it—she's tried most everything else." Finishing his dinner to the accompaniment of this cheerful style of comment, which Mr. Wigglesworth, along with other men, kept in reserve especially for his wife, he went out on the lawn and adjusted the wire hoops according to diagram.

"Best exercise in the world," he boasted, waving a mallet, in the air. "Old Wetherbee told me he reduced his weight nine pounds in two weeks. Come down here!" he called to his wife, "and let's have a game."

Mrs. Wigglesworth adjusted the ball under her husband's direction. "Do I knock it through this first wicket first?" she asked. "Course," tartly answered Mr. Wigglesworth; "think ye had to knock it through the last one first? Might try to get it through the seventh one fourth, I s pose. Mrs. Wigglesworth's new rules for croquet, got up by herself." Putting her tongue between her teeth,

Mrs. Wigglesworth struck smartly at the ball and dug a hole in the lawn. Quickly recovering, she dealt a second stroke, avoided the ball and tore the wicker out of the

"That's the way," howled Mr. Wiggles-worth. "That's the way to go through the wickets."

He took the bent wire from his wife's mallet and thrust it back in the ground. "Lemme show ye," he said in a tone of importance, while Mrs. Wigglesworth stood back and adjusted her hair.

Mr. Wigglesworth sent his ball through the first wicket, and nearly got it through the second, and probably would have done so anyway if the minister hadn't leaned over the fence at that moment and disconcerted his aim.

"Delightful game," commented the minister in a kindly tone. "Full of life, requiring the exercise of skill and an admirable discipline for the temper. I am very fond of it."

Encouraged by this favorable opinion,
Mrs. Wigglesworth bunted her ball under the wire arch and struck the ball of her

'Brave!" cried the minister, gleefully clapping his hands. "A good stroke. Now, you can croquet his ball out of your

He explained how this could be done, and under his instruction Mrs. Wigglesworth sent her husband's ball merrily bounding to the far extremity of the lawn, slowly followed by the husband himself, muttering. The minister was a finished performer, and with his intelligent assistance Mrs. Wigglesworth discovered a skill that nobody could have believed she ever was capable of. Smoothly she glided through the wickets, tapped pleasantly against the turning stake, and then set her sails for the return home, while anon she would set upon her husband the opposing ball and send it out of the county.

"You think yourself mighty smart, don't ye?" Mr. Wigglesworth hissed be tween his gritted teeth to his wife when the minister's back was turned.

Mrs. Wigglesworth suffered a little smile of triumph to momentarily flicker into her face, and at that the blood of Wigglesworth boiled over.
"Who's playing this game anyway?" he snorted, glaring at the minister. "Why, Ellery!" expostulated Mrs. Wigglesworth. "I can beat the whole box and dice of ye!" ejaculated her husband angrily, as with a lucky stroke the balls collided. The full knowledge of the indignities put upon him in the game singed through his recollection, and he trod the balls into close conjunction. "Look out there!" he warned, waving the minister to one side. Then he put his foot on the ball, lifted his mailet aloft and smote with a strength born of long bottled up anger. The mallet shricked through its circle, there was a momentary aguation of the atmosphere, and Mr. Wigglesworth was rolling among the wickets with his foot in both hands and a connected stream of yells issuing from his lips, such as the minister said afterward he could never have believed the human lungs were equal to producing. "Wow-wow-wow!" howled Mr. Wigglesworth, curling about the home stake and thrusting one leg up toward the heav-ens while he still gripped the other foot affectionately.

"Let me help you," suggested the min ister, leaning over him with a look of sympathy in his countenance. Mr. Wigglesworth straightened out like

A neighbor saw a man pacing wildly about the lawn waving above his head a painted maliet. At every blow, struck with terrific violence, a wire wicket would go sailing through the air and rattle upon the barn roof far distant. The man limped dreadfully, the neighbor said, and accompanied each limp with a groan and some remarks that were more than adequate to the occasion. So there is no doubt that it was Mr. Wigglesworth.-New York Re-

A VETERAN SCIENTIST'S WORK.

Career of Professor Davidson, the "Man Who Talked With the Stars."

Professor George Davidson, who was recently dismissed from the United States coast and geodetic survey to make a place for a younger man, has spent 50 years in the government service and is still full of vigor, endurance and energy at the age of 70. He attended Girard college, Philadelphia, in 1845, and then entered the coast survey at a salary of $25 per month, which was raised to $50 per month, with a subsistence allowance of $10 a month when on field work, after four years of service. In 1849, when the gold scekers began pouring into California, Davidson was sent to San Francisco to chart the practically unknown coast for the benefit of mariners at a salary of $500 per annum. In three years he and two assistants charted the entire coast from San Diego to Port Townsend.

In 1808 he was placed in charge of the western division, and his work was of incalculable benefit on land and sea. His influence with James Lick directed the millionaire's thoughts toward the establishment of the great Lick telescope and led the eccentric philanthropist to abandon his pet idea of building a monument to himself in the form of a magnificent pyramid rivaling Cheops itself. He has traveled all over the

He had many exciting adventures with Indians along the Pacific coast and in Alaska, and during the Indian war on Puget sound in 1855-6 worked for days in peril of his life until his courage won the admiration of one of the chiefs, who declared that no one should injure the man who talked with the stars.

Genilemen:—Replying to yours of the 1st, would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years, and of late have consumed a 10 cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have naver been able to give up the habit until I took Narcoti Cure, although I have tried other so called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days, all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four cays more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects whatever. I am gaining in fiesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say, use Narcoti Cure.

THE SAM JONES FAMILY. The Famous Evangelist Is Very Charltsble and Loves Fast Horses.

Sam Jones, the revivalist, whose strong preaching and wonderful command of picturesque slang has made him famous from one end of the country to the other, lives in Cartersville, Ga., when he is not on the road endeavoring to save souls. Despite the fact that the evangelist gives away more money annually in charities than he spends for the support of his family he is quite well to do and is the owner of two excellent farms, a gristmill, a number of valuable lots and some stock in a Cartersville bank, of which he is a director. He is also said to carry one of the largest life insurance policies in

When Jones is in Cartersville, he wears a slouch hat and a plain business suit and calls all his friends by their first names. They address him as Sam and admire him for his energy and his quaint wit. On the street Jones smokes a eigar or a pipe and drives across country behind a thoroughbred horse. He is a great admirer of fast horses, and it is said that next to the work of saving souls he most enjoys holding the ribbons over a thoroughbred equine. He has six children and is very happy in his domestic relations. Two of his daughters are the wives of J. A. Mays and W. M. Graham respectively; his elder son, Paul, is studying law; Edward, the second son, is a bright boy at school, and two more daughters, Laura and Julia, are still little girls.

Jones was born in Alabama 45 years ago, and as a boy of 14 fled when Sherman's army poured into Georgia on the march to the sea. After the war Jones became a lawyer and was making his mark when liquor wrecked him. He lost his practice and impaired his health and was empelled to drive a dray and work in iren mines to support his family. Finally be conquered his appetite for strong drink, was converted in 1572 and preached his first sermon at Felton chapel, near Cartersville. Jones, who was then a teamster, visited the church, and as the regular munister did not appear Jones stepped into the pulpit and preached a remarkable sermon. For ten years he was a Methodist circuit rider. and at the great revival in Memphis in 1553 first attracted national attention.

THE KUCHENG INVESTIGATION. Foreign Representatives Will Doubtless be Permitted to Purtleipate. WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.-The state department has been informed that there was some disposition on the part of the Chinese officials not to allow the American and British officials to be present at the investigation of the Kucheng riots. It is stated at the department that the usual hitch has occurred, in which the Chinese officials have refused to allow any interference with their form of procedure. In every case where there has been an investigation of the kind proposed the same objections have been made, the Chinese feeling that they will lose prestige with their people if they allow foreigners to participate in their courts. These objections have always ended in the submission of the Chinese after some delay. It can be stated authoritatively that the instructions to Minister Denby cover all questions now in controversy, and that the investigation will be conducted in such manner as to allow the American representative to secure complete and full information as to the cause of the riots and the persons participating in them, whether high or low. The assurance is also given that this will be done in such a manner as to leave nothing for complaint by the American people on the score of failure to obtain the facts relating to the disturbances. It is not at all probable that Minister Denby has been directed to make any such demand as that to be made by the British minister at Peking, as it is known here that such a demand would not be necessary. It is understood that the Chinese minister has informed his government that the best interests of China will be served by according to the American and British officers the most thorough facilities for obtaining all information de-It is not believed at the state department that the refusal of the Chinese authorities will do more than to delay the investigation for a time.

THE DENVER DISASTER.

Thirteen Bodies Recovered-The Romance of Peter Gumry's Life.

DENVIR .Aug. 21.—Thirteen bodies have so far been taken out of the ruins of the Gamry hotel, and it is evident that the death roll, when complete, will contain twenty-four or twenty-five names, possibly more. The dead already taken out and identified were:

Frederick Houbold, manager of Opera House, Lishon, Ia.; Robert C. Greiner, manager of Gumry hotel: Mrs. Robert C. Greiner; James Murphy, contractor, Donver: George Burt, Rock Island railroad conductor; E. F. McCloskey, mine owner, Cripple Creek: Mrs. G. R. Wolfe and child, Lincoln. Neb.: William Richards, elevator pilot; B. I. Lorah, Central City. Colo.; Ferdinand French, treasurer of Gilpin county, Colo.; Myron E. Hawley, Union Pacific railroad elerk. E. W. Edwards, a Denver butcher.

The statement that Mrs. R. C. Greiner. one of the victims of the disaster, was a daughter of Peter Gumry, proves incorrect. Mr. Gumry was never married, and leaves no known relatives. All he knew about bimself was that he was of French birth, and that his parents were drowned at sea. Of all the erew and pa-sengers of the British brig Peter Gumry, when she foundered off the banks of Newfoundland over fifty years ago, he alone was save l. His rescuers gave him the name of the wrocked vessel. He leaves property valued at $100, 60.

Fire Chief Roberts says he saw Elmer Losher, also known as Pierce, the young engineer whose carelessness caused the explosion, wasking rapidly away from the scene of the disaster about ten minutes after the fire department arrived. Detectives are searching for him.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21, 1895.

There are 126 Savings Banks doing business in this State. The largest is the Bowery Savings Bank, of New York city, with resources of $63,300.-000, and the smallest is the State Savings Bank of Troy, with resources of $59,360. There are twenty banks with resources of over $10,000,000 each, and fifty-nine whose resources exceed in each instance $1,000,000.

Quay looks like a sure winner in Pennsylvania. He has carried several counties that were counted on as safe by the Hastings-Martin combine, and the delegates definitely committed to him number within seven of a majority of the convention. In the county conventions to be held this week he is expected to secure at least thirty more delegates. It is expected that Glikeson, Chairman of the State Committee, one of the leading members of the anti-Quay combine, will attempt to do the Senator by making up the convention roll against him and placing on it the names of the combine delegates in every county where there are contests, but it's the safest kind of a bet that Quay, after having won a victory in the open, will not allow himself to be robbed of it by darklantern and safe-cracking methods.

The new constitution, made by Republican lawyers and adopted by the people in a moment of "reform' madness, provides for twelve additional Justices of the Supreme Court to be elected, this fall, three of them in this district. The term of office is fourteen years and the salary $10,000 a year, so that the office is a very desirable one, even if no account is taken of the honor and power that go with a place on the Supreme Bench. Naturally, many lawyers would like to receive the nomination and there are Democratic and Republican candidates in every county in the district. It is taken for granted that two of the nominations will be claimed by Brooklyn in both the Democratic and Republican conventions, and that the third nomination will be allowed to go to one of the rural countles.

The fact that Orange county already has a Supreme Court Justice in the person of Hon. Charles F. Brown, of Newburgh, is thought by many politicians to bar this country from any chance of securing one of the nominations, this fall, and this is undoubtedly true so far as the FELL FROM A WEST SHORE TRAIN. Democratz are concerned. There is, however, a strong movement in the Republican party in favor of Dis rict Attorney Hirshberg and it is thought by many leaders here and elsewhere that it would be good politica to nominate him. The Newburgh Telegram, discussing the situation, says that it is proposed to make it plain sailing for Mr. Hirschberg and do away with the argument that Orange county already has a trial | judge by having the Governor appoint Judge Brown a member of the appellate division of the court. This information is especially interesting as showing the power of the Republican machine and the Governor's subserviency to it. New York has had Governors, who would rightly have considered it an insult if party posses had attempted to dictate to them in regard to the judiciary.

OHIO DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Senator Brice is Chosen Temporary Chairman-His Speech-The Platform.

BY UNITED PRESS. Springfield, O, Aug. 21. - The Democratic State Convention was called to order at 10:30, this morning. Senator Brice was elected temporary chairman. He urged harmony, reviewed the work of the Democratic party and declared the present revival of business was due to its wise legislation. He sulogized Cleveland's administration, but declared he did not wish to be understood as urging him for a third term, and predicted the endorsement by the people of the policy of the Democratic party under Cleveland, viz, no Federal inter erence in elections, sound tariff and sound money.

The report of the Committee on Credentials revealed the existence of several contesting delegations. The platform expresses satisfaction at the results accomplished by the Democrats in the last two years; congratulates President Cleveland on his efforts to repeal vicous laws and to uphold the country's credit; urges the maintainence of the parity of gold and silver and endorses their use as the standard money of the country.

Charles Flynn, nineteen years old, of 239 Mercer street; James Hughes, eighteen, Walter Hughes, fourteen, of 201 Second street; Thomas Flanagar, eighteen, of Westervelt erreet: Harry Fitch, seventeer, of Whiton street, and William Martin, nineteen, of 567 Henderson street, all of Jersey City, received two weeks' vacation Gen. Hobart Ward. of New York, from their employers, They are dime novel readers, and having procured a tent, a quantity of canned goods, and a shotgun they set out on a camping tour a week ago. They stopped at Ramapo in the woods, and on Monday came up the Erie to Chester. They pitched their teats in a piece of woods on Lewis Satterly's farm, a mile and a half from the village. They were visited by Hank Showers, a colored boy of fifteen. He was entertained by the boys until yesterday afternoon.

James Hughes had been out in the woods with the gun. Upon returning to camp he found the other campers teasing Showers. He placed the gun on the ground and Flynn picked it up and pointed it at Showers, say-

"I'm going to shoot you." He pulled the trigger. There was a report, and Showers fell over with a large wound in the lower left shoulder and breast. Flynn, who alleges that he supposed the gun was not loaded, remained by the dying boy w ite the others went for a doctor. Showers died in a few minutes. Flanagan, Fitch and Martin fied at once, but the others gave themaelves up to the authorities.

Coroner Decker held an inquest at Ryan's hotel, Chester, last night. After hearing the testimony, the jury rendered a most astonishing verdict, which is certainly unique, and shows that the irrespresible Hoeber, of New York, isn't the only coroner who thinks his "quests' have the the right to find men "guilty" of crime and determine their punishment. Here it is:

We find that the deceased, Henry Shower, came to his death by a gun shot wound inflicted by the hand of Chas. Flynn. We further find said Flynn guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree, and recommend him to the mercy of the court.

The coroner heeded the recommendation of the jury and the young man. "guilty of manelaughter in the fourth degree" was allowed to go,

OBITUARY.

Edgar Alonzo Willersdorf.

Mr. Elgar A. Willersdorf died, last night, at the house of his brother-in-law, Mr. John McWilliams, No. 14 Wickham avenue, with whom he made his home, aged forty-seven years, nine months, twenty-five days. The cause of death was an affection of the bowels and kidneys, which followed an attack of pleurisy, which he had on June 8th. He has been gradually failing since that time, but was confined to his room only for the last three weeks. His death was entirely unexpected, for there was nothing in his condition to cause his friends to fear that his end was near.

Mr. Willersdorff had been in the railway mail service for about ten years. He was a resident of Warwick when appointed, but for several years past has resided in this city.

Mr. Willersdorff was a kind, genial and generous friend, on i an affectionate and faithful son and brother, who will be greatly missed,

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Catherine Willersdorff, and one sister, Mrs. John McWilliams.

Joslah Otis, From the Independent Republican.

Mr. Josiah Otis, a well known farmmer, of this town, residing near Glenmere Lake, died on Sunday evening last. Mr. Otis has been in failing health for some months.

Mr Otis was a brother of Messrs. Chas. H., Henry C. and Galen, of Howells, and Pierson M. Otis, of Bloomingburgh. He is survived by a second wife, who is a half sister of A. T. Be tholf, of Howells, and by four daughters, Lena. Clara, Stella, Daisy, all at home; also by two daughters by a first wife, Sophia, wife of George S. Vail, of Florida, and Mary at home.

SPLENDID SPECTACLE

GREAT HISTORICAL PLAY FOR THE COTTON STATES EXPOSITION.

Atlanta Proposes to Show the Commercial as Well as Artistic Side of the Drama. The History of De Soto-Mrs. Littleton's

It is the object of every great fair or exposition to present to the world some enterprise it has not known before-to leave some monument, as it were, to mark its success. At the last exposition of Paris there was the Eiffel tower, the World's fair had its Woman's building and the Ferris wheel, while the Cotton States and International exposition will present, among other things, the first dramatic exhibit from an artistic and commercial standpoint. Incre have been so called dramatic exhibits, but they were always on an individual basis, excluding the general participation of the dramatic world. When the idea of this exhibit was first considered by the woman's board last October, Mrs. M. L. Littleton proposed to undertake the organization of such an enterprise, and suggesting a number of plans that might be carried out asked the proper authority to go to New York and present them to the dramatic enthusiasts. The magnitude of such an undertaking on the part of woman appalled the majority, but Mrs. Joseph Thompson, with that appreciation of woman's capacity that distinguishes her and has characterized her every movement, gave Mrs. Littleton great encoaragement and furthered her success by appointing Mrs. William Dickson chairman of the dramatic com-

The interior of the building will be entirely furnished by exhibits sent by those commercially interested in the dramatic world. Exhibitors will not only have the advantage of the advertisement attending their association with such an enterprise as a whole, but at the same time an individual exhibit in whatever line their properties may be.

The scenic artists are eager for representation. Different ones will take different scenes of the play and compete with one another as to artistic details in scenic effects. The scars in the theater proper will be furnished by manufacturers in that line, different ones taking different portions or sections of the auditorium.

The stage furni-hings in various seemes will be the representation of rival establishments of the kind, all sent as exhibits. Rival costumers will take different scenes and furnish the costumes in all the necessary glatter of spectacular brilliancy. Wig makers will exhibit their art in the costuming, and even the dealers in thentrical cosmetics will send their exhibits for "artificial beauty." The inventors of different modes of manipulating colcium lights, so necessary in secuic effects, will contend for supremacy in their exhibits, and there will be concentrated in this one enterprise all the inventions and desirable suggestions of modern stage mechanism. The librettos and programmes will be furnished as the exhibits of the theatrical publishing houses. The allegorical painting combining the arts of the drama, forming the fresco effect of the ceiling, will be an exhibit from the mural artists. They have frequently complained of the Inch of opportunity to display their work individually, and the drop curtain will be likewise an exhibit of mural art.

With this complete combination of stage appointments the glamour of the 'spectacular' will be for the first time thrown over the south in the dramatic conception of a southern woman, Mrs. M. L. Littleton, assisted in the adaptation by Mr. Francis C Drake of New York city. The drama has been criticised and highly praised by the capable dramatists of the day, and it seems in its gorgeous page intry, sentiments and sympathies to bring out the exact line of commercial alliance between the United States and the Latin-American countries, which the Cotton States exposition proposes to promote.

It is a historical spectacular drama. combining a well defined plot and romance, with striking and brilliant musical, electric and spectacular effects. The leading events of the drama are historically accurate, the writer having made an exhaustive study of the times of Fernando de Soto. The characters, costumes and scenery are taken from historical descriptions and famous paintings, giving to the drama an educational value aside from its gorgeous attractions. The drama by the personality and travels of De Soto links the two continents at a time when Charles V reigned in Spain and his palace at Valladolid surpassed in magnificence the tales of oriental splendor feld in the "Arabian Nighte." It brings back those times when the forests and plains of Georgia, Alabama and Florida were mimeval in freshness and tempestuous with storms and Indian warfare, while at the same time was the civilization of Peru at the zenith of material splender, furnishing scenes unsurpassed for spectacular drama.

The special attraction of the play lies, it is claimed, in the fact that it is legitimate spectacular; that one is thrilled and spelibound by an ever maxing plot, pagically described in romance, while of pigeantry and the ear fascinated by musical combinations.

The post deals with the efforts of De Soto and Isabella to defeat the schemes, jealorsies and ambitions of Pizarro, Balbon and a be intitul. Indian prince-s seeretly married to Balboa. At one time the Indian woman conspires to have Isabella captared by her Indian brayes. In the conflict the young Spanish gul hecomes the property of the Peruvian mea, and being pronounced flawless is set apart for sacrifice to the sun according to the national custom of sending virgins to the abode of light and bliss in atomoment for the sins of the people. The scene in the temple of the sun, where Isaba'ta deries the priests and calls heaven to defend her, is one of the most magnificent that can be imagined. The temple is blazing in gold, the high priests in gorgeous raiment, and attendants five abreast fill the aisles. From the sides 20 priests in crimson and gold, ten abreast, open the way for a band of 190 dancing girls, selected from the royal household for their grace and beauty.

When the ceremonies are at their height, Isabella is brought in, and the priest with the sacrificial knife calls upon her to rejoice at the glory of dying for the sun god. To add to the scene, a storm arises, and thunder and lightning add majesty to the moment when Isabella proclaims herself a Christian and by her comage and conviction holds the vast multitude at bay until De Soto and his band rush in and rescue her. This is the great third act, but all of the others are equally thrilling, and the one in Florida, if anything, is more beautiful. After the romance is complete and the audience satisfied that every one is happy old Ponce de Leon, the dreamer who figures all through the play as a tender minor chord, leans upon his staff and tells of his belief in the fountain of youth. Isabella tells him "love is the fountain of youth," and here is sung a beautiful melody, the words by Frank L. Stanton and the music by Sousa. This scene is gradually wrought up to the point where a sudden darkening of the stage makes the introduction of the fountain of youth a firring climax to the play. There is a marvelous transformation of scenes and a final ballet of 100 girls in shimmering draperies, ever of electric light. The play well ab unds in comedy and comic songs adapted to it by capable dramatists. Among them will be a song and chorns by Joel Chandler Harris: Oh, this is Mr. Phiblit that runs in the grass.

CAN'T KILL HIM.

Fell Forty Feet Down a Stairway, but Has Elecovered.

James Fox of J. H. Besverth post. G. A. R., of Fair Haven, Vt., who fell about 40 feet down a stairway in the Columbian hotel, Saratoga, is in a fair way to complete recovery. His case is a remarkable one.

When picked up he was apparently dead, and Coroner M. E. Varney, who is also a surgern, was sout for. His quick eye detected signs of remaining life, although no beatings of the heart were discermble. He resorted at once to artificial respiration, and soon Fex began to breathe. Dr. Varney sent for Des Inlay and Moriarta to aid him, and on their arrival made a full examination of the patient. His neck was found to be disbrated at the second cervical vertebra. Ly a careful surgical manipu lation the column was replaced and band iged without injury to the spinal cord, and Mr. Fox at once regained the power of speech and full respiration. -New York Sun.

ERSKINE MILLS, Druggist, North St.

Mayor Stansbury undoubtedly saved himself some very unpleasant experiences by "taking to the woods" immediately after filing his vetoes of the East Main street and Wickham avenue paving jobs. If he's as foxy as we credit him with being he'll skulk in the thickets till the unpleasantness blows over, and the wrath of those whose schemes he has knocked endways has had a chance to cool off and vent itself in blatant denunciation of the boss who has become "too bossy." There is no doubt in the mind of the Angus that Mayor Stansbury, by refusing to approve the East Main street paving contract, has rendered the city a real public service. The Council had made a horrible mess of sixteen Members of the 24th Quality the whole matter. It blundered in refusing to consider the petition of property owners for granite blocks, it blundered in not awarding the contract to the lowest bidder; it blundered in its order to the Traction Company to pave between and along its tracks, and it blundered worst of all when it selected Catakill brick, which have never been tested, as the material with which to pave the street. We use the word blundered advisedly, for in spite of the ugly insinuations which he back of the pertinent questions citizens are asking about the choice of Catekill brick, we are not prepared to believe that the Council was improperly influenced. We stick to our original behef that it was a case of official dunderheadism, that the men whom the Republican party has chosen to rule over this city don't know toe lowest bid when they see it, and don't know that it isn't good public policy to spend $10,000 of the people's money in giving the Catskill Brick Company a charce to prove that it can make bricks fit to be laid in a city's streets Now ir's a peculiarity of an official dunderhead that he don't like to be told of his dunderheadism, and so it has come to pass that every individual dur derhead in the Council nas been, since Monday night, a storm centre of impotent, yet noisy, wrath because the Mayor would not allow them to hopelessly involve the city in costly entanglements. 'The worms have turned." The creatures and creations of the boss yow that they will be bossed no longer. They even go so far as to accuse the Mayor of having been "bought up by the Traction Company," which makes no secret of the fact rhat it don't want any paving done, this year. A movement is on foot to unite the Republican ald imen in a combine against the Mayor, to override his veto and "show him that he isn't as big as a boss as he thinks he is "

Strange as it may seem, good citizens, who really have the welfare of the city at heart but who are so blinded by ignorance and partianship that they can see no safety for city, state or nation unless they are under Republican rule, have taken fright at the rattling of the alder manic peas in our cfficial teapot and are lamenting the Mayor's "ill considered vetoes" as likely 'to split the party."

DISAPPOINTED LITTLE GIRLS.

They start On a : Excursion and Love Their Train at Mechanictona.

Two little daughters of O. and W. Engineer Geo W. O'Neut suffered a grievous disappointment, yesterday. They started on the Rockaway excureion and expected to be joined by their aunt at Mechanictown and to make sure of meeting her alighted from the train at the depot. They didn't see their aunt, who had boarded the train as soon as it stopped, and began to hunt for her and while doing so the train started and left them behind The children had looked forward to the excursion with great anticipations and their giref and disappointment when they saw the train moving away can be imagined.

There was rothing left to do but return home and there were two very heavy little hearts on the first electric car that came up from Mechanic town

Eleven Cars of Corn in One

We were shown, this morning, a curiosity,-eleven ears of cora in one. About the central ear, which is of fair size are grouped ten smaller ears, all of them, with one exception, perfect in development and well filled out with kernels. This wonderful specimen of corn growth was raised on the farm of Grover Clapham, near Bloomingburgh.

The recent death of Josiah Otis recalls to mind the fact that he the proposed new academy. underwent the singular experience of being financially rulned through having property left to him. Mr Otis lived on the road to Glenmeie. He was a prosperous farmer and his residence and farm buildings are models of their kinds. Not many years ago, through the death of his father, Mr. Olis inherited a considerable amount of Middletown Bank stock, which was at that time considered a gilt-edged security. The stock had been in his possession but a short time when the crash came. The bank suspended, the stockhold ers were assessed to make good the existing deficiency and Mr. Otts's assessment exhausted all his available resources and drove him into bankruptey. It was a pretty tough experience for a man to undergo and one which won for Mr. Ous the sympathy of all who were familiar with the facts in the case.
